OKLAHOMANMADE- PHOTOGRAPHY COMPETITION ANNOUNCED
Oklahoma City Foundation for Architecture Sponsors 2010 Photography Competition

(Oklahoma City, Oklahoma) The Oklahoma City Foundation for Architecture invites Oklahoma residents to participate in the 2010 Photography Competition, titled OKLAHOMANMADE. The Foundation is hosting this competition to highlight the beauty and diversity of the built environment in Oklahoma. Interested participants are encouraged to submit their entries no later than January 8, 2010. Entries must have an architectural theme or must contain some element of the manmade environment and located in the State of Oklahoma. Competition rules and entry form can be found on the Oklahoma City Foundation for Architecture web site at www.okcarchitecture.com.

The mission of the Oklahoma City Foundation for Architecture is to promote excellence in our physical environment by educating the community to recognize it, design professionals to provide it, and by doing projects that demonstrate it.
